"Peace of Mind"

"Peace of Mind" (PoM) is a programme of the Israel Center for the Treatment of Psychotrauma at the Herzog Hospital, Jerusalem. PoM treats discharged soldiers who have been exposed to exceptionally high-risk combat. The 6-month programme helps unburden these soldiers from the horrific encounters and images they have experienced and increases the likelihood of a return to a full and healthy civilian life. The programme includes a 7-day overseas visit to a Jewish community who host the soldiers and provide communal facilities for the intensive daily group therapy sessions allied to more-relaxing activities.

Edgware Yeshurun PoM Committee is funding the visit of a group of about 16 soldiers to the UK
